

30-3-7 When decree becomes absolute.

- (1) The decree of divorce becomes absolute:
 - (a) on the date it is signed by the court and entered by the clerk in the register of actions;
 - (b) at the expiration of a period of time the court may specifically designate, unless an appeal or other proceedings for review are pending; or
 - (c) when the court, before the decree becomes absolute, for sufficient cause otherwise orders.
- (2) The court, upon application or on its own motion for good cause shown, may waive, alter, or extend a designated period of time before the decree becomes absolute, but not to exceed six months from the signing and entry of the decree.
